

2nd Golf Tournament Raises Almost $21,000 Worth of Food for the Second Harvest Food Bank

The 2nd annual “Drinking Cajun Martinis and Playing Afternoon Golf” Tournament was held Aug 7th at the Culbertson Hill’s Golf Resort. Twenty teams joined the fun of decorating their carts, and playing a ‘Buffett’ themed scramble all while helping a very worthy cause. The tournament attracted golfers from Erie, New York State, the Pittsburgh area, and even Canada giving the day an international flair.

The fun didn’t end after the golf. The participants enjoyed a Cheeseburger-Themed buffet dinner, awarding of prizes, and plenty of door prizes. Key West Express then took the stage for 2 hours of singing and dancing.

Karen Seggi, Executive Director of the Second Harvest Food Bank said that the money raised came at an important and very needed time. The organization is between funding periods, and their shelves were a bit depleted. The $1235 dollars donated translates into $20,995 worth of food. Please visit <http://www.eriefoodbank.org>
